Assumption of risk

Owned and Operated by: RE Gun Dogs LLC

As a pet owner leaving my pet at "Man's Best Friend" Boarding facility, I understand there are certain risks of injury or illness that our out of the control of "Man's Best Friend" Boarding facility.

Pets, by their very nature, are often times nervous, hyper excitable, and don't always use good judgment. Hence they sometimes injure themselves while playing with other pets or over-reacting to being enclosed. Some examples include, but not limited to:

1. play injuries: including ruptured ligaments, broken teeth, torn nails, lacerations, damaged disc, and scratched eyes, as well as countless other types of injuries.
2. over-reaction injuries: torn nails, bitten lips and tongues, broken teeth and nails. These injuries can occur while trying to escape an enclosure.
3. Fighting injuries: Many times a group of pets can be playing peacefully and, literally, within half a second, be fighting and biting. I understand that this behavior happens too quickly for the staff to prevent.

I will not hold "Man's Best Friend" responsible for injuries attained while in the care of this facility.

Pets, by their very nature, are not concerned with cleanliness as are humans. For example, they defecate and urinate on the ground. Sometimes pets will sniff and touch their nose to and (rarely) consume it. They also lick each others mouth and anal areas, and chew on other pets toys. I understand that some diseases are airborne and do not require direct contact with another pet and that infectious pets are often not obviously infected. I understand that my pet is in a social situation, much like a human day care and that infectious problems are impossible to eliminate.

I will not hold "Man's Best Friend" responsible for infectious disease attained while in the care of this facility.

Pets again are not concerned with what they put in their mouths. They can swallow something in less than a second. I understand that my pet may ingest something they shouldn't while in the care of "Man's Best Friend". Some examples may include, but are not limited to, objects left by the owner, toys, owners bedding, etc.

I will not hold "Man's Best Friend" responsible for problems associated with anything ingested while in the care of this facility.

I am the owner of the pet(s) , and or agent and agree with the statements above_____
